They [G] say that [D] love is a [G] gentle thing
But it's [C] only [D] brought me [G] pain
For the [C] only [D]man [Em] I ever loved
Has [Am] gone on the [D] morning [G] train

I never will [D] marry
I'll [G] be no man's [C] wife
I expect to live [G] single
All the [D] days of my [G] life

Well the [G] train pulled [D] out
The [G] whistle blew
With a [C] long and a [D] lonesome [G] moan
He's [C] gone He's [D] gone
Like the [Em] morning dew
And [Am] left me [D] all [G] alone

I never will [D] marry
I'll [G] be no man's [C] wife
I expect to live [G] single
All the [D] days of my [G] life

Instrumental Break:

Well there's [G] many a [D] change in the [G] winter wind
And [C] change in the [D] cloud's [G] design
There's [C] many a [D] change in a [Em] young man's heart
But [Am] never a [D] change in [G] mine

I never will [D] marry
I'll [G] be no man's [C] wife
I expect to live [G] single
All the [D] days of my [G] life
